Course information for heads of security and deputies

In order to obtain certification, it is compulsory for the head of security to attend a one-day training course. He/she must be a permanent member of staff at the company. To ensure continuity in security matters within the company, it is recommended that the head of security be accompanied by a deputy. Those in overall charge of security at larger, independent locations are also encouraged to participate in the course.

- Course content
- Introduction to air cargo security
  - Threats to air transport
  - The airfreight chain
  - Basic legal principles
  - The national security concept
  - Security program for "known consignors"
  - Guide to implementing the security program
  - Tests on the above material

Course languages: German / French / Italian

Course certificate: An attendance certificate signed by the independent validator.
A certificate from the Federal Office for Civil Aviation valid for 5 years.

Course costs: CHF 1,200 per participant including coffee breaks and lunch.
